
Research Support Center

The Center is engaged in activities to support researchers including information search, support for surveys, management of collected books and documents, management of the in-house network, preparation of the website, and management of personal information obtained in the course of investigation. It also deals with maintenance of the relationship with the related organizations (Japan Society for Future Research, Japan Society for Science Policy and Research Management, and Japanese Society for Integrative Medicine), including support for their secretarial work.